Look Within

New MTA chief Joseph Lhota faces many items on his agenda. Keep NYC Free stresses the need to look within the agency.

In prior posts, we noted the need to get the forensic audit done. It would certainly provide a Mr. Lhota useful blueprint for reform.

We highlighted a joint audit conducted by the State and City Comptrollers. Now a new audit, this time by NYS Comptroller Tom DiNapoli that focuses on overtime abuse at Metro-North. Certainly Mr. Lhota inherits a situation with many challenges and we wish him well.

We leave him these inspirational lyrics from a song Jimmy Messina wrote and sang on Poco's aptly titled Legacy LP:

*When you're down and feelin' low
And there ain't nobody and no place to go
Don't feel alone 'cause you have a friend
Look within, look within*
